"Parents show courage with vulnerability, trusting us with very distressing and personal experiences, sometimes just needing us to listen and other times looking for advice and support."

Volunteer

"Volunteering with Iverson Trust is an amazing experience. Being able to be a listening ear to parents of exploited children has been a huge eye opener and has given me a greater respect of the strength and resilience of parents who are refusing to give up on their children even when their own lives have been tipped upside down in a way that many of us can't even imagine."

Volunteer

Raising awareness and improving practice.

"I have never been on a course delivered with such passion and knowledge. The course has helped to change the way I see child exploitation and I am now better equipped to deal with both victims and suspects going forward."

Affected Parent

"The parent speaker and her lived experience was beyond moving, she really showed bravery getting up on the stage and telling her story, and how it is still ongoing for her, but her brutal honesty will shape things going forward – it already has done for me! Just seeing things from a different perspective really can shape lives."
